So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone

Galatians 6:10

In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

Acts 20:35

One gives freely, yet grows all the richer; another withholds what he should give, and only suffers want.

Proverbs 11:24

For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me...And [He] will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers or sisters, you did it to me.'

Matthew 25:35 & 40

If you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness and your gloom be as the noonday.

Isaiah 58:10

1 John 3:18

Isaiah 6:8

What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

James 2:14-17

Let brotherly love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body.

Hebrews 13:1-3

Whoever gives to the poor will not want, but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.

Proverbs 28:27

We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up.
